AimBank Abilene Announces Ron Keller

Abilene, TX – AimBank is proud to announce the addition of Ron Keller in Abilene as Senior Vice President, Lending.

“I would like to announce the addition of Ron Keller in our Abilene branch of AimBank,” remarked Gary Galbraith, Abilene Market President. “Ron brings an abundance of lending experience, and we are excited about the opportunity to have him as part of AimBank’s team. Ron is a proven community leader and we know he will do great things with us here in Abilene.”

Ron is a Texas native with over 28 years of banking experience. He has a Bachelor’s degree in Ag-Economics from Tarleton State University. Ron has experience in several areas of lending including agricultural, commercial, and consumer loans. He has served in several different volunteer positions such as Chair and Committee Member of TBA Agriculture and Rural Affairs, Chairman of the Baird Development Corporation, President of Eastland County Farm Bureau, Gorman ISD School Board Trustee, Founder and President of Gorman Economic Development Council, and Chamber of Commerce Director for several communities. “I am very appreciative of becoming a part of AimBank, which is highly recognized as a strong community bank with the ability to offer quick local loan decisions. I look forward to serving Abilene in my new role at AimBank,” remarked Ron Keller.

About AimBank

AimBank was originally chartered on September 19, 1925, as the First National Bank of Littlefield. Due to the perseverance on the part of its officers and staff, the bank withstood the Great Depression, a world war, and various booms and busts in the agriculture and energy markets. In 2003, the bank was converted to a state-chartered bank and ownership is now vested in AimBank employees and local investors. AimBank has continually grown and expanded our presence into several markets over the years, including Abilene, Amarillo, Farwell, Levelland, Littlefield, Lubbock, Miami, Midland, Muleshoe, Odessa, Pampa, Shamrock, Snyder, and Wolfforth with over $1.4 billion in assets.
