AimBank Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Lubbock, TX – AimBank will hold an official ribbon cutting ceremony on August 21, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. at the site of our new branch located at 6502 Slide Rd, Suite 110, Lubbock, TX.

AimBank is committed to the growth and future of the local community. “Lubbock and the surrounding region are a vital piece of AimBank’s future and we are proud to serve the people and business of this great area. This new location give us the opportunity to offer more flexibility and convenience to our customers. Our continued growth has allowed us to successfully improve and expand our commitment to superior customer service, “remarked Jonathan Hill, Lubbock Market President.

At AimBank, we have the strength and stability of a well-established bank with the local expertise of a community bank. We are proud to provide our customers with advanced online and mobile banking tools and an array of lending and deposit services for individuals and businesses. Whether its energy, commercial, real estate, home mortgage, or agricultural lending, our local bankers have an in-depth understanding of the local economy and give you the time and attention necessary to understand you and your banking needs.

About AimBank

AimBank was originally chartered on September 19, 1925 as the First National Bank of Littlefield. Due to the perseverance on the part of its officers and staff, the bank withstood the Great Depression, a world war, and various booms and busts in the agriculture and energy markets. In 2003, the bank was converted to a state-chartered bank and ownership is now vested in AimBank employees and local investors. AimBank has continually grown and expanded our presence into several markets over the years, including Abilene, Amarillo, Farwell, Levelland, Littlefield, Lubbock, Miami, Midland, Muleshoe, Odessa, Pampa, Shamrock, Snyder, and Wolfforth with over $1.3 billion in assets.
