AimBank Announces the Promotion of Evan Jansa

Lubbock TX – AimBank is proud to announce the promotion of Evan Jansa in Lubbock as Assistant Vice President, Commercial Lender.

“I would like to announce we have promoted Evan Jansa,” remarked Jonathan Hill, Lubbock Market President of AimBank. “Evan has been an important part of our AimBank family already, and he has continued to show initiative in his career. We are excited about the opportunities ahead as he advances his career in our bank as a Commercial Lender.”

Please join us congratulating Evan Jansa in his promotion to Assistant Vice President, Commercial Lender. Evan came to AimBank as part of the Platinum merger and has been with the bank since 2008. He worked as a teller through college and, upon graduation, was promoted to Credit Analyst. Evan has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Tech University. As an avid sports fan, he has also worked as a sportswriter and sportscaster for many years. Evan has proven to be a valuable member of our Lubbock team and is very deserving of this promotion. “I am excited to be a continued part of AimBank’s success, and look forward to many more years of working with such a great organization,” remarked Evan Jansa, Assistant Vice President, Commercial Lender.

About AimBank

AimBank was originally chartered on September 19, 1925, as the First National Bank of Littlefield. Due to the perseverance on the part of its officers and staff, the bank withstood the Great Depression, a world war, and various booms and busts in the agriculture and energy markets. In 2003, the bank was converted to a state-chartered bank, and ownership is now vested in AimBank employees and local investors. AimBank has continually grown and expanded our presence into several markets over the years, including Abilene, Amarillo, Dalhart, Farwell, Levelland, Littlefield, Lubbock, Miami, Midland, Muleshoe, Odessa, Pampa, Shamrock, Snyder, and Wolfforth, Texas and Angel Fire, Clayton, Logan, Raton, Santa Rosa, and Tucumcari, NM with over $1.8 billion in assets.
