AimBank Amarillo Announces Lee Ogletree

Amarillo, TX – AimBank is proud to announce the addition of Lee Ogletree in Amarillo as Senior Vice President, Agriculture Lending Specialist.

“I would like to announce the addition of Lee Ogletree in our Amarillo branch of AimBank,” remarked Bob Murray, Amarillo Market President. “Lee has been a proven leader in the agriculture banking sector, and we are excited about the opportunity to have him as part of AimBank’s team. Lee brings an abundance of experience and knowledge in agricultural lending and commercial lending, and we know he will do great things with us here in Amarillo.”

Lee is a Panhandle native with over 18 years of banking experience, and has a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from the University of Texas. Lee has a strong background in several areas of lending including agricultural loans, commercial loans, and underwriting experience. He has served in several different volunteer positions such as Boys Scouts of America, Carson County 4-H leader, Big Brother Big Sister of the Texas Panhandle, Carson County Livestock Association, Parish Council President at St. Francis Church, and as a youth sports volunteer. “I am especially proud to become a part of AimBank, which is highly recognized as a strong community bank with the ability to offer quick local loan decisions. I look forward to serving Amarillo in my new role at AimBank,” remarked Lee Ogletree.

About AimBank

AimBank was originally chartered on September 19, 1925, as the First National Bank of Littlefield. Due to the perseverance on the part of its officers and staff, the bank withstood the Great Depression, a world war, and various booms and busts in the agriculture and energy markets. In 2003, the bank was converted to a state-chartered bank and ownership is now vested in AimBank employees and local investors. AimBank has continually grown and expanded our presence into several markets over the years, including Abilene, Amarillo, Farwell, Levelland, Littlefield, Lubbock, Miami, Midland, Muleshoe, Odessa, Pampa, Shamrock, Snyder, and Wolfforth with over $1.5 billion in assets.
