

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 20, 2014

For more information Contact:
Chad Alexander or Juneta Mitchell
806.894.2265

Chad Alexander, Levelland Market President, announced that Jason Swann has joined the Levelland location serving as Vice President and Lender. Swann brings with him nine years of lending experience. Jason is a Plains High School graduate and received his B.S. in Agricultural Development from Texas A&M University. Jason resides in Levelland with his wife, Erin and their daughter Jaci.

Swann previously served as Vice President/Branch Manager for Capital Farm Credit over the Levelland and Littlefield locations, serving Hockley, Cochran, Lamb, Terry and Yoakum Counties.

Scott Wade remarked "That due to our bank growth, the addition of Swann will assist our location with both commercial and agricultural loans and allow us to offer more services to the surrounding counties." Alexander remarked that "We are happy and fortunate to have someone with Jason's ability and experience joins our Levelland bank staff. His appointment will continue to build on our strong customer relations, having professional bank employees who display leadership and in promoting genuine hometown banking."

AimBank is owned and guided by a group of area investors and directors.